

THE ARTS SOCIETY WALTON ON THE HILL

SPECIAL INTEREST MORNING

6th NOVEMBER 2025

LECTURER MATTHEW DENNEY

Matthew will talk about the Antique market from 1985 until now with a lecture called “THE MARKET FOR ANTIQUES OR WHY NO ONE WANTS TO BUY YOUR WARDROBE ANYMORE”. He discusses what people do want to buy as prices of thousands of pounds are still routine in Auction Houses.

This is followed after a short break by an assessment of articles brought in by you, so start looking through the house for all sorts from postcards, jewellery, books, coins, toys or other old curiosities.

We start at 10.00 for 10.45 with coffee and a danish and there is a light with wine at approximately 1.00.

The day ends after lunch so the price is only £25.00.
